

CCTWS and WY-TWS Joint Meeting Code of Conduct

The 2026 CCTWS conference provides opportunities for education, exchange of ideas, mentoring, networking with fellow wildlifers, and engagement with colleagues. In this light, and with the goal of ensuring that our conference is welcoming and inclusive for all, we expect attendees to abide by the following code of conduct:

Expected behavior

- All participants should treat all others with respect and consideration, valuing the diversity of identities, views and opinions that may be different than those you hold.
- Communicate with respect for others; critique ideas rather than individuals.
- Professionalism should be exercised at all times.

Unacceptable behavior*

- Harassment, sexual harassment, threats, intimidation, or discrimination of any kind or in any form, in-person or on social media platforms.
- Personal attacks directed towards conference participants.
- Physical, verbal, or non-verbal abuse.
- Inappropriate comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race, religion, age, or national origin.
- Conduct of a stalking or threatening nature.
- Disruption of talks, presentations, or other activities organized by CCTWS.
- Unlawful conduct or activity of any kind.
- Destruction of property or equipment

 Includes behavior at any conference event or associated activity, and directed toward any conference attendee, speaker, exhibitor, or conference center or catering employee.*

Reporting of Inappropriate Behavior

- If you are the subject of or witness conduct in violation of these guidelines, please notify a board member:
